Discussion Decorum

Throughout this course, we will be discussing and viewing some very controversial issues. It is expected that students respectfully agree and disagree with one another. I will not tolerate any personal attacks or rude comments between any students. Any breach of this decorum will result in loss of credit for the assignment that day and potentially administrative action.

Course Description

The thinkLaw elective teaches critical thinking, problem solving, and discussion skills through the use of real court cases. Students will engage in philosophical discussions and work together to draw conclusions or possible outcomes.

Supplies

An important part of middle school is developing effective organizational strategies and habits. The following tools are recommended to help keep you organized:

- > 1 (one) three-ring binder or folder
- > Pens or Pencils

Units of Study

- ThinkLaw for Beginners
- Social Justice Law
- Environmental Justice Law
- Sports and Entertainment Law

Cell Phones and Technology

During class, cell phones or other personal devices (devices) must be silent and in the student's backpack. Cell phones & devices may not be used in class without teacher permission. First occurrence: warning. Second occurrence: device will be placed in the cell phone/technology area on the teacher's desk and can be picked up at the end of the school day. Third occurrence: device will be turned into the 4A or front office and must be picked up by a parent/guardian.

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world”. -Nelson Mandela

Semester Grading

Per North Pointe policy, semester grades will be weighted as follows:

Semester 1: First quarter 40%, Second quarter 40%, Semester 1 Final Exam - 20%

Semester 2: Third quarter - 40%, Fourth quarter - 40%, Semester 2 Final Exam - 20%

Late Work

Assignments are due in class, when called for, and must be complete and legible. This means that even if you turn in your assignment 5 minutes after I have collected the class work, yours is considered late. This also means that if your work is incomplete or not readable, it will not be accepted. Late assignments are reduced 10% per day. If a week passes, the assignment will not be accepted and will be graded as a O.

Parent Communication

Parents may contact me using the contact information listed at the top of this syllabus. Email is the best mode of contact. If students are having behavior problems or academic issues, I will contact parents to inform them of the problem and enlist their aid in solving it. If the issue remains unsolved, administration will take over to resolve it.

Grading

Each student will receive a letter grade upon completion of this course. All points, regardless of category (i.e.: exams, classwork, participation), will be weighted equally to the calculation of the course grade with the only exception of the Semester Final Exam worth 20% of the total grade. Students and parents can access course grades using the Online Academic Resource via the Student Grades link:

The North Pointe Prep handbook sets our grading scale as follows:

College Prep	Honors Class
A= 90% <	A = 90%<
B= 89-80%	B = 89-80%
C= 79-70%	C = 79-68%
D= 69-60%	D = 67-59%
F= 59% >	F = 58%>

North Pointe does not accept course credit from other high school or online institutions for currently enrolled students.
