COURSE DESCRIPTION:

College Prep United States History (CPUSH) is a two-semester course in which:

Major events from the Columbian Exchange through current issues are emphasized. Students will analyze the development of the United States, with emphasis on Arizona when appropriate. Students will study several historical documents. An analysis of the geography of the United States is integrated into the course curriculum.

EXPECTATIONS FOR ONLINE DISTANCE LEARNING

Students are expected to uphold the Student Conduct Code, policies, and procedures put forth in the North Pointe Student Handbook whether attending school online or on campus. When attending school online, these policies still apply:

- BE ON TIME: You, the student, must be visible and audibly available via Zoom at the beginning of class until the end of class so Mr. Smith can take accurate attendance. If there are any technical issues, you must e-mail Mr. Smith at ksmith@pointeschools.org immediately explaining the issue so we can work together toward a solution.
- Dress Appropriately: Students are expected to adhere to the dress code outlined on page 22 of the Student Handbook while attending classes online via Zoom.
- Maintain an Environment for Learning: Students are expected to keep themselves muted unless instructed by Mr. Smith to unmute. Students are expected to remain respectful of all students in the digital classroom. Students are expected to have patience with technical issues. Students are expected to practice respectful digital etiquette.

This syllabus is subject to change. All changes will be announced in class.

COURSE POLICIES AND EXPECTATIONS:

Point Schools have identified 9 rules which all students are bound to uphold. The instructor shall enforce these rules in this classroom. Violations of these rules will be met with appropriate and fair consequences. These rules and consequences are:

- Be on Time
Students are required to be in their seats and completing the “Do Now” task before the late bell rings. Parents will be notified if a student is tardy to class and the teacher reserves the right to assign In-School Suspension to tardy students.
- Respect Yourself & Others
Point Schools is committed to having a disruption-free environment within the classroom. Students who speak out at inappropriate times or inappropriately shall be verbally warned for a 1st offense. A second offense for such disruptions will result in an e-mail to the student’s parents explaining the situation. The consequence for causing a disruption a third time will be removal from the classroom by administration.
- Be Prepared
Students will come prepared for class with all required materials and assignments.
Assignments: All assignments and exams will be due on their assigned dates. Late work will not be accepted. All assignments that are late, without prior notification to and an agreement reached with the instructor, will receive a grade of ZERO. Assignments may be typed or handwritten unless otherwise stated by the instructor. Sloppy and/or incomprehensible assignments will not be accepted. Being absent the day before an assignment or exam does not excuse a student from taking that exam except in unusual circumstances. Tests must be made up within 2 days of the assigned test date.
- Do Your Best Work
Students will do their own best work. Students who plagiarize or cheat will face the consequences laid out in the Student Handbook. Students’ parents will be notified in cases of plagiarism and cheating. The teacher will know if a student steals information from Wikipedia or other sources on the internet. The teacher knows how to use Google.
- Maintain an Environment for Learning
The best way to maintain an environment conducive for learning is to keep the classroom distraction free. Therefore:
Cell Phones, Non-Educational Items, and Other Electronic Devices are not to be used, heard, or seen during class time without administrative approval. These items will be held in students’ backpacks during class time. Students violating this policy THE FIRST TIME will place their phones in the popcorn bin on the teacher’s desk and the phones can be picked up after school in the 4A center. Students’ parents will be notified. Student will also be assigned lunch detention to be served at the next available teacher’s lunch.

This syllabus is subject to change. All changes will be announced in class.

- Keep a Positive Attitude

- Take Responsibility

- Dress Appropriately

Students found in violation of the Pointe Schools Dress Code will be referred immediately to Administration.

- Use Your Time Wisely

Unless confidentially noted as a symptom of a medical condition, sleeping in class is prohibited. The Instructor reserves the right to wake students up from naps during class time using very loud noises or slightly nudging the student's desk.

Class Participation: Students are encouraged to question their instructor at any time. Students are also encouraged to share their opinions at appropriate times.

Restroom Use: Students will be to access the restroom five minutes after class has started until five minutes before class ends. Students must sign out and sign in on the class sign-in/sign-out sheet, but do not need a specific bathroom pass. However, Students should know that restrooms should be accessed prior to the start of class or after the end of the class during passing periods. If a student requests bathroom access excessively, the teacher reserves the right to contact parents via e-mail explaining the situation.

TUTORING:

The instructor will be available for tutoring before school (7:30am-7:55am), and after school (2:35pm-3:25pm). Appointments can be made by the student via email or in person but are not necessary.

MANDATORY TUTORING and ACADEMIC PROBATION:

If a student is earning a grade of F, he or she must attend tutoring from 2:35pm-3:30pm Mondays and Wednesdays until his or her grade improves to at least to a C. Before these tutoring sessions, students will consult with the teacher in the completion of an Individualized Academic Probation Plan. This plan is designed for students to commit to specific, problem-solving strategies to improve his or her grade to at least a C.

The school day, per North Pointe policy, starts at 7:15am and concludes at 3:30pm. In this respect, students must attend tutoring sessions if their grade falls into the F range. Failure to report to or refusal to effectively participate in tutoring will be considered insubordination and subject to administrative action.

This syllabus is subject to change. All changes will be announced in class.

EVALUATION AND GRADING:

Grading Philosophy: Grading in this course will reflect a student’s achievement relative to the assigned coursework (i.e.: tests, quizzes, homework, class work, participation, group projects, etc.)

Course Grading: Each student will receive a letter grade upon completion of this course. This grade will correlate with the effort and achievement of individual students on class assessments and assignments. All assessments and assignments will be recorded in our Online Academic Resource as “Total Points”. All points, regardless of category (i.e.: tests/quizzes, Classwork, homework), will be weighted equally to the calculation of the course grade.

You may access our Online Academic Resource through our Student Grades link on northpointeprep.com.

Semester Grades: Per North Pointe Social Studies Department policy, semester grades will be weighted as follows:

40% (Quarter 1/3) + 40% (Quarter 2/4) + 20% (Semester Exam/Final Exam) = Final Grade

Core Class Failure – 8th hour and Friday School: High school students who fail a core semester class are required to take an 8th hour class (2:35-3:30 M-Th) the following semester. The student may also be assigned to Friday School (12:15-3:00). When a student fails a class, the teacher will complete an Individual Recovery Plan (IRP) noting the specific assignments to be completed by the student and/or the exam(s) the student must pass to prove competence of the standards. After the student completes the Individual Recovery Plan, they will no longer have to take the 8th hour class or Friday School. Students who fail to attend assigned 8th hour or Friday School are subject to disciplinary action and may have to repeat a grade.

Once enrolled, North Pointe does not accept course credit from other high school or online institutions.
